Initial assessment screen with a brief summary: £200 – £250

What this includes:

- A pre-assessment questionnaire (completed by you)

- 60-minutes of assessment time (£200) or 90 minutes of assessment time (£250).
- The assessment will contain one or more of the following: completing a case history, formal assessment, informal assessment, observation, questionnaires, conversations with you, your child or other professionals, feedback from activities completed, discussions about the next steps.
- You will receive a short, written summary via email with an outline of activities completed and recommendations. Please note recommendations may include further assessment or liaison time.

This package may be suitable for you if:

- You are not sure if your child needs speech and language therapy.
- You do not need a written report.
- Your child may not need a lot of support.
- Children who have recently had a detailed speech and language therapy assessment and have a written report with targets and recommendations.
- You would like allocated time to chat to the therapist (the 90-minute appointment is recommended for this).

Initial assessment screen with a written report: £280 - £330

What this includes:

- A pre-assessment questionnaire (completed by you)
- 60-minutes of assessment time (£280) or 90-minutes of assessment time (£330).
- The assessment will contain one or more of the following: completing a case history, formal assessment, informal assessment, observation, questionnaires, conversations with you, your child or other professionals, feedback from activities completed, discussions about the next steps.
- You will receive a written report via email (90-minutes report writing and analysis time is included) detailing findings from the assessment, recommendations and if appropriate, suggested areas to work on.
- Reports are usually sent out within 14 days of the assessment date.

This package may be suitable for you if:

- You have concerns about your child's speech, language, and communication skills.
- You would like to share information with others such as your child's school.
- You would like allocated time to chat to the therapist (the 90-minute assessment time is recommended for this).

- Your child has difficulty in one area e.g., their speech is difficult to understand but there are no other concerns with their talking or communication.

Therapy session prices

Therapy sessions: £80 or £100 per session

What this includes:

- After an assessment or review session, we may agree to start therapy sessions. The number of sessions will be discussed and agreed with you.
- A therapy session lasts for 45-minutes (£80) or 60-minutes (£100) and involves working on agreed aims and targets. This time includes working on activities and discussions with you.
- Therapy sessions may require attendance and participation from a parent, family or staff member. This will help your child make maximum progress and generalise learnt skills.

Therapy sessions may be suitable for you if:

- You are already known to That Speech Lady Ltd and your child has been seen for an assessment or review session.
- You would like to learn how to support your child's speech and language skills.
- You would a high level of support, either for a short period of time or longer.
- Please note: for stammering therapy, or therapy working on more than one area of difficulty, 60-minute sessions are usually recommended.

Therapy summary report: £100 per report

What this includes:

- A therapy summary report can be provided after a block of therapy sessions.
- The report will summarise areas worked on and progress made. It will include any recommended strategies or activities to continue at home or in other settings and information about the next steps.
- Please note: Depending on the areas being targeted, progress may not be seen immediately after a block of therapy. Progress is often noticed more during the review appointment (6-8 weeks after therapy ends) as your child has had additional time to work on their targets and consolidate their learning.

A therapy summary report may be suitable for you if:

- You would like a document containing key information from therapy sessions for easy reference.

- You would like to share information with others such as your child's school or other people known to your child.
- You would like to provide an update to your child's NHS speech and language therapist.
- You would like a formal record documenting your child's speech and language journey.

Parent only session prices

Parent only sessions: £80 or £100 per session

What this includes:

- We may agree to a number of parent only sessions before or after an assessment or review session. The number of sessions will be discussed and agreed with you.
- A parent only session lasts for 45-minutes (£80) or 60-minutes (£100) and involves working directly with you on agreed aims and targets.
- Your child does not need to attend these sessions.

Parent only sessions may be suitable for you if:

- You would like advice and guidance for supporting your child at home.
- You would like to learn practical strategies to support your child's speech and language skills.
- You would like uninterrupted time to discuss your child's needs.
- Please note: 60-minute parent sessions are usually recommended.

Written programme prices

A written programme with targets, activity ideas and resources: £100

- After an assessment or a review session, we may recommend a written programme is created. A programme will usually include targets, activity ideas and resources specifically tailored to what your child needs.
- It is often recommended programmes are worked on at home and in your child's educational setting.

A written programme may be suitable for you if:

- You would like activities to do at home (and if relevant, to share with school staff too).
- You are not looking for a high level of support.
- You or your child's school have a trained member of staff who has knowledge, confidence, and experience in delivering speech and language programmes.

Demonstration session prices

Demonstration sessions: £80 or £100 per session

- Some programmes may require a demonstration so educational staff or parents can fully understand how to deliver and present activities.
- The demonstration session requires your child to be present and the family or staff member who will be working with your child.
- A demonstration session lasts for 45-minutes (£80) or 60-minutes (£100).

Demonstration sessions may be suitable for you if:

- You are already known to That Speech Lady Ltd and your child has been seen for an assessment or review session.
- You would like to support your child's speech and language skills.
- You would like to be shown how to use the resources provided and work on targets.
- You would like a written programme but you do not yet feel confident delivering this on your own.
